SERVICE MUST BE AT THE HEART OF A GOOD SHEPHERD

by Fr. Marlon Atendido

EL SERVICIO DEBE ESTAR EN EL CORAZÓN DE UN BUEN PASTOR

“There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved.” Our salvation comes to us through the Risen Christ (first reading). We are not just saved but we are destined to be called children of God. We have merited this wonderful gift by becoming children of God through Christ death and resurrection. This is indeed the greatest proof of God’s love for us (second reading).

Only a true shepherd would dare to lay down his life for his sheep. Jesus Christ our true shepherd has laid down his life for us. Our Lord and any good shepherd is willing enough to lay down his life because that is what love does, only he who love truly are motivated to sacrifice his life for those he care for. Not under compulsion but completely and voluntarily.

Is this still true for every leader in the Church, for every shepherd? My dear brothers and sisters, we will only be able to say that our leaders are our true shepherds if they are willing to sacrifice their lives for those who are entrusted in their care. Service is indeed a sign of true greatness, a service that is not motivated by self-interest but by humility and love. Our world of today also have bad leaders, which we can consider hirelings and not shepherds, they are those who consider their position of power as career to enrich themselves, to overlord those entrusted to them, to manipulate and dominate. Alas! Poor Church indeed, that would have such kind of shepherds. It makes us so disappointed if our shepherd enriches themselves at the expense of the flocks.

Therefore, let us pray to the Good Shepherd of our lives that he will send many more shepherds who are selfless and humble!

“No hay salvación por medio de otro, ni hay otro nombre bajo el cielo dado al género humano en el que podamos ser salvos”. Nuestra salvación nos llega a través de Cristo Resucitado (primera lectura). No sólo somos salvos sino que estamos destinados a ser llamados hijos de Dios. Hemos merecido este maravilloso regalo al convertimos en hijos de Dios a través de la muerte y resurrección de Cristo. Ésta es, en efecto, la mayor prueba del amor de Dios por nosotros (segunda lectura).

Sólo un verdadero pastor se atrevería a dar su vida por sus ovejas. Jesucristo nuestro verdadero pastor ha dado su vida por nosotros. Nuestro Señor y cualquier buen pastor está lo suficientemente dispuesto a dar su vida porque eso es lo que hace el amor, sólo quien ama de verdad está motivado a sacrificar su vida por aquellos a quienes cuida. No por obligación sino de forma total y voluntaria.

¿Sigue siendo esto cierto para cada líder de la Iglesia, para cada pastor? Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas, sólo podremos decir que nuestros líderes son nuestros verdaderos pastores si están dispuestos a sacrificar sus vidas por aquellos que se les han confiado. De hecho, el servicio es un signo de verdadera grandeza, un servicio que no está motivado por el interés propio sino por la humildad y el amor. Nuestro mundo de hoy también tiene malos líderes, a los que podemos considerar asalariados y no pastores, son aquellos que consideran su posición de poder como una carrera para enriquecerse, para dominar a quienes les han sido confiados, para manipular y dominar. ¡Pobre de mí! Pobre Iglesia en verdad, que tendría semejante clase de pastores. Nos decepcionamos mucho si nuestro pastor se enriquece a expensas de los rebaños.

Por eso, ¡roguemos al Buen Pastor de nuestras vidas para que envíe muchos más pastores desinteresados y humildes!
