RESPONSORIAL PSALM

I love you, Lord, my strength.

Te amo Señor, mi fuerza.

Prayer of Saint Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Oracion de San Miguel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Que Dios manifieste sobre él su poder, es nuestra humilde súplica. Y tú, oh Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, con el poder que Dios te ha conferido, arroja al infierno a Satanás, y a los demás espíritus malignos que vagan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

Sunday Readings Reflection

Loving our neighbors isn't always easy, especially when they don't show us the same kindness we extend to them. Even in close relationships, we may feel frustration or anger, but Jesus calls us to love everyone, not only those we find easy to love. Embracing compassion means letting go of negativity and remembering Jesus's teaching to "love your neighbor as yourself."

However, one of the biggest challenges is not just in loving others, but in truly learning to love ourselves as Jesus intended. Many struggle with guilt, regret, or insecurities, which can make self-love difficult. Yet, growing in self-love is also part of following Jesus's directive. Regular reflection, examining our conscience, and finding grace through confession help us heal and grow. As we nurture our bond with God, we find that His love enables us to see ourselves as He does, preparing us to love others more fully.

A recent reflection from Mary's Mantle Consecration reminds us, "God is well aware of our limitations... There is no need for us to hide. Holiness... arises from continually exposing our weaknesses in contemplation and Confession." This humility and self-acceptance help us grow in holiness, allowing His light to turn our flaws into strengths.

This Sunday's readings highlight that love for God and others is the heart of our faith. In Deuteronomy, Moses calls us to love God with all we are, bringing His blessings into our lives. Jesus echoes this by linking love for God and neighbor, showing that the two are inseparable. As we follow these commandments, we draw closer to God's kingdom, sharing His love in the world through kindness, respect, and compassion.

Reflexión sobre las lecturas del domingo

Amar a nuestro prójimo no siempre es fácil, especialmente cuando no nos muestran la misma bondad que nosotros les brindamos. Incluso en relaciones cercanas, podemos sentir frustración o enojo, pero Jesús nos llama a amar a todos, no solo a aquellos a quienes nos resulta fácil amar. Abrazar la compasión significa dejar de lado la negatividad y recordar la enseñanza de Jesús de "amar a tu prójimo como a ti mismo".

Sin embargo, uno de los mayores desafíos no es sólo amar a los demás, sino aprender verdaderamente a amarnos a nosotros mismos como Jesús quiso. Muchos luchan contra la culpa, el arrepentimiento o las inseguridades, lo que puede dificultar el amor propio. Sin embargo, crecer en el amor propio también es parte de seguir las directivas de Jesús. La reflexión regular, el examen de nuestra conciencia y la búsqueda de la gracia a través de la confesión nos ayudan a sanar y crecer. A medida que alimentamos nuestro vínculo con Dios, descubrimos que Su amor nos permite vernos a nosotros mismos como Él nos ve, preparándonos para amar a los demás más plenamente.

Una reflexión reciente de la Consagración del Manto de María nos recuerda: "Dios es muy consciente de nuestras limitaciones... No hay necesidad de que nos escondamos. La santidad... surge de exponer continuamente nuestras debilidades en la contemplación y la Confesión". Esta humildad y autoaceptación nos ayudan a crecer en santidad, permitiendo que Su luz convierta nuestros defectos en fortalezas.

Las lecturas de este domingo resaltan que el amor a Dios y a los demás es el corazón de nuestra fe. En Deuteronomio, Moisés nos llama a amar a Dios con todo lo que somos, trayendo sus bendiciones a nuestras vidas. Jesús se hace eco de esto al vincular el amor a Dios y al prójimo, mostrando que los dos son inseparables. Al seguir estos mandamientos, nos acercamos al reino de Dios y compartimos Su amor en el mundo a través de la bondad, el respeto y la compasión.

Pray a Novena for the United States this November!

Dear Lord,

We thank You and praise You for the many ways You have blessed us. We pray today that You will bless the United States and protect all of the good it offers its citizens.

The United States is a very prosperous country, rich in blessings from You. Though the citizens and government of the United States are fortunate in many ways, they face struggles and temptations each day. You can help all elected leaders of the United States to always lead in a virtuous manner despite any opposition or attacks they might face.

Please pour out Your grace upon the United States, and we particularly ask today that You help all elected leaders of the United States to lead virtuously.

Help us to always bring all of our needs to You in confidence. Give us the grace to trust in You completely in every situation we face.

And we especially ask in this novena for (mention your intentions here). Lord, hear our prayers!

LOVE

NEIGHBOR

YOUR SELF.

THERE IS NO OTHER COMMANDMENT

GREATER THAN THESE.

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT

In today's Gospel reading, one of the scribes asked Jesus what was the most important commandment of God. Jesus told him that the most important rule was to love God with everything- our heart, our soul, our mind and all our strength. The next most important rule is to love others as much as we love ourselves.

God made us to love Him. We will never be really happy unless we do. But if we keep God first in our lives then everything else will happen the way God wants it to. If we love God first, then we can love others the way God asks.

What can you do to keep God first in your life? How about saying a prayer as soon as you wake up in the morning, and last thing before you go to bed at night?

Answer to front page puzzle: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, strength, and all your resources.
 Answer to Greatest Commandment Puzzle: God with all your heart.
