“Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday. On this day the church recalls the entrance of Christ, the Lord, into Jerusalem. He is here to fulfill His Paschal Mystery. Like King David, Jesus enters the capital on the traditional animal. He is enthusiastically greeted as the Messiah, the Savior of the people. He comes as a humble and peaceful King.

This triumphal entry emphasizes the three elements of suffering death and resurrection, which ended not in defeat but victory. Jesus’ impending death will not thwart the divine plan. We keep in mind that suffering, pain and death are also part of our path to an eternal and glorious life with our Lord.

In our lives we each experience our own path to redemption. Sometimes we are received with joyous words of welcome; sometimes we are shunned or ignored. Sometimes hostility may enter our lives. Jesus experienced all of these things. Knowing the outcome His Father required of Him, He still had to make the choice. We, too, have opportunities to make choices everyday of our lives. Jesus chose to follow the will of His Father. We have the chance to do the same.

“¡Hosana! Bienaventurado el que viene en el nombre del Señor”.

Hoy celebramos el Domingo de Ramos. En este día la iglesia recuerda la entrada de Cristo, el Señor, en Jerusalén. Él está aquí para cumplir Su Misterio Pascual. Como el rey David, Jesús entra en un burro que es el animal tradicional. Se le saluda con entusiasmo como el Mesías, el Salvador del pueblo. Viene como un Rey humilde y pacífico.

Esta entrada triunfal enfatiza los tres elementos de sufrimiento, muerte y resurrección, que no terminaron en derrota sino en victoria. La muerte inminente de Jesús no frustrará el plan divino. Tengamos presente que el sufrimiento, el dolor y la muerte también son parte de nuestro camino hacia una vida eterna y gloriosa con nuestro Señor.

En nuestras vidas, cada uno de nosotros experimenta su propio camino hacia la redención. A veces somos recibidos con alegres palabras de bienvenida; a veces somos rechazados o ignorados. A veces la hostilidad puede entrar en nuestras vidas. Jesús experimentó todas estas cosas. Conociendo el resultado que Su Padre exigía de Él, todavía tenía que tomar la decisión. Nosotros también tenemos oportunidades de tomar decisiones todos los días de nuestras vidas. Jesús eligió seguir la voluntad de su Padre. Tenemos la oportunidad de hacer lo mismo.
