RESPONSORIAL PSALM

To you, O Lord, I lift my soul.

A ti, oh Señor, elevo mi alma.

Prayer of Saint Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Oracion de San Miguel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Que Dios manifieste sobre él su poder, es nuestra humilde súplica. Y tú, oh Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, con el poder que Dios te ha conferido, arroja al infierno a Satanás, y a los demás espíritus malignos que vagan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

Encountering THE SEASON

Advent for the Family

First Sunday of Advent (C)

Jeremiah 33:14-16
1 Thessalonians 3:12—4:2
Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Dear Family:

Read the reflection on trust and discuss the “Ponder and Pray” questions and prompts, thinking about how Our Lord is calling you to act. Then consider the challenges of the “Live It” section, have fun with the family activities, and dive into the visio divina prayer exercise.

“Trust Me”

Truly trusting another person is one of the hardest things we can do. It’s easy to say, “I trust you,” but allowing others in our lives to act without our permission or supervision is difficult. It can be hard to trust people if we’re afraid of being let down or if we feel deep down they won’t come through for us.

It can be even harder to trust God. While God and his will for us are perfect, sometimes the way that will plays out in our broken human existence can cause us to question whether he truly knows what he’s doing. At such times, it’s natural and normal to want to grasp for control, to say, “It’s all right, I’ll take it from here ...”

Do you ever find yourself thinking, If I want something done right, I have to do it myself? We can become so self-reliant through repeatedly being let down that fully trusting someone can feel foreign and unknown. This is the place in your heart that God wants to enter this Advent.

“ Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior,
and for you I wait all the day. ”
—Psalm 25:4-5

Acceptance by Mike Moyers

Today, on this First Sunday of Advent, can you allow God to lead you one step forward? Can you let him show you he is worthy of your trust? What could be waiting for you on the other side of this leap of faith? Peace? Joy? Hope? Let God give you these gifts by allowing him to carry you in his love. He wants the best for you and your loved ones even more than you do.

Ponder and Pray

- Resting for a moment in the uncomfortable feeling of letting go of control, talk to God about what is coming to the surface. What is it about trusting God that fills you with fear? Do you feel hopeful at all that God could take on some of your mental burden, giving you the peace you desire?
- We are entering into the busiest time of year: preparing for Christmas. What small thing can you trust God with this week? What if trusting God allowed him to come through for you in ways you never imagined?
- The Surrender Prayer is a powerful prayer to take into Advent: “O Jesus, I surrender myself to you; take care of everything!” This week, as you go about your life, practice trusting God by surrendering random moments throughout your day.

Visio Divina

Look at this week’s painting for a few moments and think about what it is saying. Then prayerfully read the questions, asking God to help you call to mind what he wishes to say to you through this image.

1. What do you think Mary and Joseph are talking about? How does the way they’re sitting make you feel?
2. Why do you think Mary is looking off into the distance? What could she be thinking?
3. Look carefully at Joseph. What does his posture say to you?

Live It

The foundation of any relationship is communication. We can’t have a relationship with God if we do not communicate with him and let him communicate with us. Focus on directing your heart and mind to God throughout your busy days. Getting swept up and distracted by everything we have going on is natural and normal, but this week, in a special way, let’s direct our hearts to God as we engage in all that demands our attention.

Fun For the Family

(From Rejoice! An Advent Pilgrimage into the Heart of Scripture, Year C)

For younger children:

Parents, in an adequate space in your house (or outside), set up a little obstacle course that your children can go through, and stay with them for support. Ask them what it feels like to go through something hard while trusting that you are there for them if they need help.

Ideas for your obstacle course:

- Hopscotch with chalk or tape
- Things to climb over or under
- Line on the floor to balance on
- An activity they need to complete before moving forward:
  - » Throwing a ball against the wall and catching it a few times
  - » Spinning around or touching their toes
  - » Singing a song while tapping their head and rubbing their belly

For older children:

As a family, go to a park you are familiar with or walk around your neighborhood. Choose one person to lead the way or ask for a volunteer. That person leads the whole group while everyone follows. Followers, notice how you have to trust the person leading you. Leader, notice how it feels to be trusted. You may wish to do this more than once, with everyone taking turns to be the leader and the followers. After each walk, take a few minutes to discuss what this felt like.

JESUS' AMAZING COMING!

Jeremiah 33:14-16 • 1 Thessalonians 3:12—4:2 • Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Family Car Talk

Instructions: In today's Gospel, Jesus says, "And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory....Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from ... the anxieties of daily life, and that day catch you by surprise like a trap." After Mass today, talk with your family about how you are preparing for the coming of Jesus. Here are some questions to get you started:

- B When you think of Jesus coming in glory, what do you imagine?
- I What anxieties, or worries, of daily life keep you from Jesus? How can you ask your family for help?
- A How do you feel about the coming of Jesus? Do you look forward to it? Why or why not?

I TEACH ME YOUR PATHS

Instructions: In today's Psalm, King David sings to the Lord: "Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior, and for you I wait all the day." Can you get King David from one end of the maze to the other, where Our Lord is waiting?

Advent is Here!

Today is the beginning of Advent, the time when we prepare for Christmas.

The word "advent" comes from the Latin word that means "coming". In Advent we are preparing for Jesus' coming. We look forward to Christmas, which is the celebration of His first coming and we also look forward to His second coming.

Did you know that the most important thing to have ready for Christmas is a clean soul?

During Advent you can try extra hard to be good. It is also a very good idea to go to confession before Christmas so that your soul will be good and clean when Jesus comes!
